RCCA Firm Profile

RCCA provides a cost-effective full service approach to tax planning and accounting, without cutting corners. Backed with the support of highly educated and motivated staff, its principal, Rajeev Chopra, CA, CPA (Illinois, USA) provides the accounting support and financial advisory background so that you and your staff do not become overburdened with the complexity of tax laws and financial management methodologies.

The firm's core focus is small to midsized business, including professional corporations such as medical and legal, ecommerce startups and marketing agencies etc. In addition to tax accounting, a chartered accountant can help your business improve its performance in multiple ways. We provide strategic input to help you see threats and opportunities. We help our clients to stay in compliance with every detail of the tax code, including corporate and personal taxes, HST, payroll deductions, and more. We can guide you from first step of starting your company through various opportunities to developing your growing business to successful one. We can plan together what is better for you and for your business. In addition, we can provide integrated personal and family tax preparation and planning if desired. As we work together we will walk you through different choices how to better handle your business to be successful in big ocean of business opportunities. Your success translates in to being our success too.

We represent over 200 corporations and have helped over 300 high net worth individuals with their personal income tax planning/preparation needs in the last year.

Client Testimonials:

"In addition to handling the complexities of our corporate tax accounting, Rajeev Chopra has the foresight to assist us in anticipating future threats and opportunities, and to assist in advisory services such as creating projections and models for future growth. It is rare to find this depth of service without having to hire an expensive Bay Street firm."

"What can I say about RCCA? Superb, given my group's experience with the firm spanning over 17 years.

When I needed advice about getting funding and business planning 3 years ago for our $ 10 million commercial plaza project in GTA, they went the extra mile in getting me setup and providing the available options. Now, all of my companies have them retained in business advisory role, as we go from strength to strength. Thank You."

Mr. Sudhir Madan, Principal of Madan Group of Companies, Toronto, Ontario.

"Simply put Rajeev is the best at what he does. I needed to incorporate I as my professional practice rapidly grew and it was becoming too disadvantage for business to stay on unincorporated stage. His expert knowledge in the area made the decision easy for me. He provides everything I need – at the time that suits my needs and does so with a smile on his face. I always refer my professional friends and colleagues to him and they always have good things to say about him."

Dr. Bharat Chawla, Director of a hospital in Ontario and high net worth global investor, Peterborough, Ontario.
